

Learn English any time of the day!

Transparent Languages is a language learning system available on the computer or your smart phone.

ESL courses are available for non-English speakers in 24 different languages including Spanish, Arabic and Vietnamese!

Courses include:

- Vocabulary and Grammar Instruction
- Pronunciation and Conversation Practice
- Unit Tests
- Language and Culture Blog
- Learning Progress Tracking

What you'll need:

- Library card, email address, internet
- Transparent Languages account

Access Transparent Language at the library website: www.library.nashville.org.

Select Databases

Under Language Learning, choose Transparent Language

First Time Users

Choose create new account and enter you library card number or barcode.

Complete the information to create an account.

Browse

From the drop down menu on the right, select a language.

Click on the red button Start learning to begin.

For ESL courses, select English for (Your Native Language) Speakers.